C.M.No.1658 of 2008 in
C.W.P.No.10372 of 2005

Present: Ms. Alka Chatrath, Advocate, for the applicant-petitioner.

***

The petitioner has prayed for recalling the order dated 16.01.2006.

Perusal of the aforementioned order shows that the petitioner was directed to comply with the order dated 12.07.2005 as the affidavit submitted by the petitioner did not answer the query raised by the Bench. The said compliance was to be done or or before 16.03.2006.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that as the case was fixed for hearing on 20.03.2006, therefore, the petitioner was under the impression that the compliance was to be made prior to that date. She further submits that the petitioner had complied with the directions issued on 16.01.2006 on 18.03.2006 and hence, the petition could not have been deemed to be dismissed.

After hearing learned counsel for the petitioner, we are of the considered opinion that the petitioner may file a fresh petition for the same relief as claimed in this petition.

C.M. stands disposed of.

(ASHUTOSH MOHUNTA)
JUDGE

March 31, 2008 (KANWALJIT SINGH AHLUWALIA)
seema JUDGE